

We Appreciate You!

'Appreciation' Program

In 2012 Thirty-One will be launching their 'Thirty-One Gives' program. With Thirty-One giving so much back to communities across the country I wanted our team to follow in their foot steps!

I have pondered how our team can give back and not just to my local community, but to several of OUR communities. We are a TEAM and I want us to support our communities like a TEAM!

I hope you enjoy the program I have developed, but mostly I hope you will participate in this experience.

Who Do You Know?

Send me a summary of a lady you know that could use an 'Appreciation' Gift.

The summary can be as long or short as you see necessary. I will need it to be emailed to me, sarasaleet@charter.net, by December 25th! This lady can be someone that goes over and beyond in her community. Maybe she is the mom who has 5 kids, works full-time and juggles a hectic schedule with ease. This lady could be suffering from an illness and just needs a pick-me-up. She may be a lady that comes from a domestic violent situation and needs to know we support her. This person may have lost her job, is on a mission to seek employment and could use a nice handbag for interviews. She may be someone that lost everything to a house fire.

Maybe she struggles to make ends meet month after month. I just want you to identify someone that you, a friend, relative or customer knows that could use OUR appreciation!

'Appreciation' Gift

After reviewing the summaries with my husband, Emmett and my mother, Gail we will choose 10 ladies to receive a gift. This gift includes ALL of the Thirty-One product you see on this flier, valued at $115 (with s&t)!!!

Presenting the Gift

Your only task aside from submitting the summary is to agree to deliver the gift to your chosen lady along with my personal note. If she is in agreement I would love to have a picture, a video would also be great or both. I want to be able to share this giving moment with our team and Thirty-One! If she does not agree to the picture or video, that is okay too, but hopefully she will. I would also ask that you dress the gift up a little bit. I will be shipping the product right to your house. My order will go in December 30th. So plan on delivering around the 2nd or 3rd week of January. Thanks ladies and know that I APPRECIATE ALL OF YOU!!!!
